

Attention Undergrads

Department of Biological Sciences invites you to join

BioBlitz 2019

When: 27-28th September

Where: Tahoka Lake Pasture

How: Sign up in the Bio office

Where : Tahoka Lake Pasture

Tahoka Lake Pasture is...

Set in a sea of agriculture and threatened by a caliche quarry

A rare saline (salty) playa edged with natural vegetation

The quarry

OUR MISSION

DESCRIBE THE BIODIVERSITY AROUND THE PLAYA WITH A BioBLITZ!

What is a BIOBLITZ?

“an intense period of biological surveying in an attempt to record all the living species within an area”

We will survey by capture,
collection and observation

Bats

Herps

Dragonflies

S

Plants

Birds

Rodents

Dates and Times and Groups

- 27th September -- 2pm – late (11 pm +) BATS, SMALL MAMMALS
- 27th September -- 6pm – late HERPS (amphibians and reptiles)
- 28th September – 7.30 am – mid-late afternoon – BIRDS, SMALL MAMMALS, PLANTS, DRAGONFLIES, HERPS, (BATS)

SIGN UP: Bio Department Front Office

JOIN US!!!

Contact: Dr Kingston – tigga.kingston@ttu.edu

Sign up in the Bio office

